The Top 8 Art Exhibitions to see in London this week

Art critic Tabish Khan brings you the top art exhibitions to visit this week. Each one comes with a concise review to help you decide whether it's for you. This week it's been expanded to nine as so many great shows are closing soon.

Im/material: Painting in the Digital Age @ Sophia Contemporary

What happens when painting collides with digital technology? What's the point of painting when it can be created online? This exhibition show us eight painters examining this crossover from the surreal landscapes of Matthew Hansel to the glowing lines by Martin Basher that look more digital than painterly. It's a fascinating concept and each artist explores it in their own distinctive way. Until 17 November.
